

SHOOTS HIS SON THROUGH HEART

Israel Monggold of Brock's Gap, in Southwest. Slays His Boy.

DETAILS OF TRAGEDY VERY MEAGRE YET

Desperate Man Barricades Himself in House and Defies Authorities—Reported Last Night to Have Been Placed Under Arrest.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HARRISONBURG, VA., September 1.—Israel Monggold, a desperate character, living in Brock's Gap, twenty miles west of Broadway, Rockingham county, shot and instantly killed his eighteen-year-old son, Homer, late last evening at the house. The murderer refused to surrender to the officers, who reached the scene about midnight, and barricaded himself in the house with the body of his victim. The details of the tragedy are very meagre. Little information has so far been received from the scene of the shooting, which is twenty miles from the nearest railroad station, and nearly half that far from a telephone. Immediately after the shooting, the nearest railroad station, as a matter of fact, had been instructed by the sheriff, Charles Fawley, the nearest officer, to proceed to the Monggold house with a posse of citizens and surround the house.

Shot Through the Heart.
A special to the Daily News from the scene to-day says that Monggold shot his son through the heart with a pistol in the presence of another son of his children, who fled from the house to the home of the nearest neighbor, several miles away, and gave the alarm. The child said his brother was dead and that his father had killed him without warning. He was terribly frightened and was unable to give any details of the affair.

Another version of the affair is that Monggold told people who came to the house, but were not allowed to enter, that he had killed his son in self-defense, and that he did not intend to give himself up or surrender the body of his victim as long as he was alive.

Reported in Custody.
Commonwealth's Attorney Conrad and Deputy Sheriff Carleton left for the scene of the murder early this morning. A message was received here this evening that Monggold had been forced to surrender at the point of the pistol by officers, and that he was nearly crazed over the affair. No cause of the shooting could be learned. The summer's jury, impatiently by Magistrate Cooper, as a matter of fact, did not complete its sitting this evening, on account of the absence of a physician to examine the body of the dead boy. The nearest physician is ten miles away.

Further information is not expected until to-morrow, when the authorities complete their investigation. Monggold has a bad reputation in the vicinity of Brock's Gap, which is in the West Virginia line, and forty or so miles from Harrisonburg. He has frequently been in trouble. His wife is dead, and his boys have been living alone with him. He is about fifty years old.

PROPOSED CONFEDERATE MEMORIAL HALL

CELEBRATION TO BE MOST GENERAL

Vast Crowd Will Turn Out To-Morrow in Observance of Labor Day.

PARADE AND CONTESTS

Imposing Procession Will Move
Through Principal Streets.
Mayor to Speak.

The big Labor Day celebration, beginning with the parade at 9 o'clock in the morning and ending late at night at Idlewood, promises to be the most complete success since Labor Day has ever had the pleasure of holding in Virginia.

The favorable results which have met the work of the committee of arrangements have far exceeded their expectations. The merchants of Richmond were so liberal when donations were asked for that the pouring in of gifts had to be stopped on account of the committee receiving more than they could possibly use. The committee is delighted with the unprecedented interest which has been aroused in the celebration, and wishes to thank all who have so freely offered their services.

Will Suspend Business.
Most all of the prominent mercantile houses and factories close their doors for at least part, if not all, day, which will allow a great multitude to join in the festivities.

It is expected that many delegations and prominent officials from different parts of the State will arrive in this city to-day. Besides the regular program, the Idlewood management has made elaborate preparations for different displays and amusements all during the afternoon and night. Mayor Carlton McCarthy, the principal speaker of the occasion, will be introduced at 2 o'clock in the afternoon by Mr. John M. Ryan, the master of ceremonies, and it can safely be said that the Mayor will face one of the largest audiences ever assembled on a similar occasion. Careful arrangements have been made to keep perfect order at the park, and no rowdiness of any kind will be tolerated. There will be

EARLE MAY SUE TRUST DIRECTORS

Receiver Employs Lawyer to Give Opinion as to Liability for Collapse.

STRONG BOX HELD NOTHING

That Is, Nothing Which Threw
Light on Tangled Condition of Hipple's Affairs.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., September 1.—Prompted by the discoveries he has made in the investigations thus far made, George H. Earle, receiver of the Road Estate Trust Company, has engaged Attorney John G. Johnson to render a legal opinion as to the responsibility for the collapse of the bank.

Upon Mr. Johnson's findings will depend the question of suing the directors, and Mr. Earle is frank in his statement that he will proceed against any man whom the attorney declares liable.

Suits will be entered, declared Mr. Earle, so as to collect every asset of the company. Asked if criminal proceedings were contemplated, Mr. Earle replied that that was a question for the attorney to decide.

"The deeper I probe into the affairs of the company," added Mr. Earle, "the worse I find them. Conditions are simply in a chaotic state. I cannot even make a guess as to the exact state of affairs."

"The banking department was wholly entangled. The trust funds, which I heretofore thought were intact, have been tampered with, and $60,000 taken. The sum is distributed among the $250,000 by the company held in trust, and the loss will not be heavy to any one trust involved. That is the only irregularity I have found in that department."

Mr. Earle to-day opened the Hipple safety deposit box, but nothing was found that would aid in clearing up the Hipple-Segal transactions.

GROUND IS BROKEN FOR THE AIRLINE RAILWAY

LAPORTE, IND., September 1.—Elaborate ceremonies to-day attended the turning of the first shovel of earth, three miles from Laporte, by President Alexander C. Miller, in the construction of the New York and Chicago Electric Air Line Railway. The company proposes to build an electric line between Chicago and New York, 26 miles long. After the turning of the first shovel of earth, the construction gangs with steam shovels and dredges started, one working each way. President Miller says that the line will be in operation in four years, as all surveys have been made, and much right of way has been purchased.

He was thirty years of age and unmarried.

MEMORIAL HALL THING OF BEAUTY

Messrs. Carpenter, Blair and Gould Describe Auditorium
They Have Designed.

IS WITHOUT A PRECEDENT

Problem of Harmony in Sentiment, Purpose and Structure
Had to Be Met.

Through the continued courtesy and labors of Messrs. Carpenter, Blair and Gould, the accompanying perspective view of the proposed Confederate Memorial Hall and Auditorium is presented to the readers of The Times-Dispatch.

In writing of their design Messrs. Carpenter, Blair and Gould say: "In order to give adequate architectural expression to the design of a building, it is necessary to determine, first, what are the conditions that call for the structure, and what exact purpose is to be served, and then from such data create a structure which fulfills not only the practical requirements, but expresses its outward form the idea of sentiment that properly belongs to such a building."

"The proposed memorial to be erected for the memory of and as a monument for the Confederate soldiers of Richmond may be considered practically a new architectural problem, and as such presents new conditions for solution. At present no type exists, and consequently there is no precedent to follow in design."

Character and Situation.

FREEMAN JONES MUST HANG FOR HIS CRIME

Negro, Convicted of Assaulting
Mrs. Jack Barker, Will Pay
Extreme Penalty.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DURHAM, N. C., September 1.—The jury in the case of Freeman Jones, who is charged with burglary and attempted assault on Mrs. Jack Barker, an assaulter, who lives in East Durham, was found guilty of burglary in the first degree, and was this morning sentenced to be hanged by Judge Moore. The most damaging evidence against Jones was the fact of Mrs. Barker's husband, who was pulled from Mrs. Barker's head during the struggle after the negro had thrown her in the yard. The home of Mrs. Barker was entered by Jones, and at the time there was no one in the house except her daughter, both attempted to make their escape, but the negro caught Mrs. Barker as she was attempting to cry for help.

(Special to Southern Bell Telephone.)
BALTIMORE, N. C., September 1.—The Wake county cotton growers this afternoon adopted resolutions demanding the resignation of Secretary Cheatham, of the Southern Cotton Growers' Association, and urging the appointment of C. A. Moore, of Charlotte, N. C., in his stead. The farmers are urged to hold their old and new cotton for 10 cents. Resolutions were adopted endorsing the North Carolina and Georgia anti-buckshot laws.

Insurrection.

MUCH EXCITEMENT PREVAILS

Midnight Conferences Are Being Held and Strictest Secrecy Is Observed.

HAVANA, Sept. 1.—It became known to-day that the insurrection has spread to the province of Puerto Principe. Seventy men have taken up arms at Moron, that province, led by Garcia Canizares, who was speaker of the house of representatives during the Liberal ascendancy in that body. The members of the band openly equipped themselves and left town in an orderly manner.

The mayor of Moron soon summoned the rural guards in the vicinity and followed the insurgents with the purpose of capturing them.

The governor of the province of Puerto Principe notified the authorities here that a mounted party of 30 men had taken up arms at Arroyo Blanco, near Cienfuegos, twenty-two miles southwest of Moron. This force is commanded by Delio Sanchez, an ex-revolutionary general.

Much Excitement.
Governor Silva, of Puerto Principe, has begun enrolling volunteers. The city of Puerto Principe is in a state of excitement.

Vice-President Mendez Capote conferred with Senator O'Farrell, the ex-secretary of state and justice, at the former's home until one o'clock this morning, but they refused to divulge the subject of their conference.

Ten city militiamen were stationed last night at each of the outlying Havana police stations, in anticipation of possible trouble, but nothing occurred.

HAVE BRYAN DAY AT RADFORD FAIR

The Noted Nebraskan, With His Wife and Daughter, to Attend.

TO BE NOTABLE OCCASION

Representative Hearst, Governors
Glenn and Swanson and Mayor
Coler to Be Present.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
EAST RADFORD, VA., September 1.—Saturday, September 15th, will be Bryan day at the District Fair to be held at Radford from the 11th to the 15th, inclusive, and not only will the great Nebraskan be present, but also his wife and daughter, Miss Grace Bryan, the two remaining as guests of Governor Tyler until Monday.

William Randolph Hearst, Governor Glenn of North Carolina, Governor Swanson of Virginia, Senator Daniel and Senator Martin, and the Mayor of Brooklyn, Fred S. Coler, will also be present, part of them arriving earlier in the week than Mr. Bryan and remaining for several days of the fair.

Governor Tyler returned from New York to-day, where he was signing a memorial to the fair, of which he is chairman, and in a meeting of the executive committee of the fair, of which he is chairman, told the story of how he succeeded in obtaining the fair, when numerous delegations on the same grand hotel had failed. Every State in the Union had delegations hunting him, each hoping to secure the promise of a chief, and in the ocean of humanity it was impossible almost to get a word with him. But the Governor's persistence, hard and ceaseless, prevailed, and the honor people are greatly elated and gratified.

In the meeting this afternoon preliminary steps were taken to entertain the distinguished guests in a manner befitting the hospitality of the fair.

Pastor C. S. Marks III.
Coming to the place of Rev. Charles A. Marks, pastor of the First English Lutheran Church, who is absent from the city, will be Rev. A. L. Phillips. A meeting of the convention will be held after the service.

NEW YORK, September 1.—Three cities joined to-day in paying the final tribute of the continuous welcome accorded to William Jennings Bryan since his arrival in New York Thursday from his tour around the world.

Returning from Bridgeport this morning, Mr. Bryan, after devoting scant time to personal business, was escorted to the National Democratic Club, where an enthusiastic reception was accorded him, and where he spoke briefly. From the club he was escorted by former Senator James Smith, Jr., and other prominent Democrats to Newark, where he addressed an audience of 10,000 in Military Park and afterwards held an informal reception, shaking hands with hundreds who crowded round the speakers.

Hailed with cheers as he drove to the railroad station, Mr. Bryan hurried to Jersey City, where he made three addresses and reviewed a parade of the Hudson County Democracy, and then returned to New York and finished the day with an informal dinner given in his honor by 200 of the working newspaper men of the metropolis.

Mr. Bryan will rest until to-morrow evening, when he will start on his journey home in company with the "Home Folks," from Nebraska, on their special train. They expect to reach Lincoln on Wednesday after stops for receptions at Detroit and Chicago.

Must Follow Own Conscience.

Mr. Bryan, as the guest of the National Democratic Club, was welcomed by several hundred members. Richard Croker was a member of the committee which escorted Mr. Bryan to the club dinner, where the distinguished visitor was received by President Fox, who introduced him to the members as "Your next candidate for the presidency."

In response, Mr. Bryan said in part: "I want to thank the club for this reception. It is not my first visit here, and, unless you enjoy me, it will not be my last. It has been said that I may be your next candidate for President. I have twice had the distinction of being the candidate of my party for that great honor. Whether I shall have it again is more than you or I can say. Mr. Ferra have been alluded since I landed, and told me some of the ideas which I advocated years ago have been made respectable by adoption in high quarters. A few months ago it looked as if I might be asked to be your candidate for President. I am now assured in leading newspapers this morning that some of the persons who were for me then will not now attempt to force that honor upon me. Whatever I shall do I must leave to the judgment of my own conscience. I prefer to have the honor of my own conscience to having the support of all the people of the United States."

Every man must do his own thinking and act according to the dictates of his own conscience. A majority is not always in the right, but it is so presumed to be in government, and the only way for a man who finds himself in the majority is to fight for his ideas until he wins the majority to his cause. I have no monopoly upon thinking for the Democratic party. Democrats do not need a leader. No one can become a leader until he is prepared to go with the people. He may be in advance of them, but he must not be behind. If the Democrats want a leader, they want one they can see without looking back. I do not care what politicians think. If I know what the people want to-day, I know what the politicians want tomorrow, for they are a kind class and want to do what the people desire."

At the close of his speech, Mr. Bryan left the club and started for Newark, N. J.

BIG CROWD IN NEWARK.

Streets Thronged and Mr. Bryan
Speaks to 10,000 People.

NEW YORK, September 1.—Mr. Bryan was given a warm reception on his brief visit to Newark to-day. The streets through which he passed on the way to Military Park, where he spoke to an audience numbering 10,000, were lined, and the visitor was received continuously throughout the ten minutes' ride. He told his auditors that he could speak to them only on time which really belonged to Jersey City.

Mr. Bryan declared that the strength of the Republicans was rapidly waning, and that the time for Democratic success at the polls was not far distant. "In 1908 they won by a tremendous majority," he said, "and they also had a very respectable lead over us in 1904."

"And they do it again!" shouted a man in the front of the stand. Instantly half a dozen policemen had seized the speaker, and were pushing him through the back, when Mr. Bryan cried out: "Don't put him out! Here the man I'm trying to reach!"
